

White Ribbon Against Pornography -- Ideas for Junior High and High Schools:

- Have something the students can do each day of the week, i.e.
 - Have a headband day (white head bands) "Band against Pornography"
 - Tie day (everyone wears weird ties) - Don't let bad pictures tie you up.
 - Sock porn - (Students wear mismatched socks) - "Sock" (hit) pornography.
 - Sneakers day - Don't let porn sneak up on you.
 - Band-aids - Cover those things that will hurt you.
 - Caution Headbands - wear headbands with yellow caution signs on them
 - Airhead Candy - "Don't be an airhead - Stay away from porn"
 - On Garbage cans put signs: "We CAN keep our minds clean" or the "Garbage In-Garbage Out" sign. (available at <http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/>)
 - Yell competition at lunchtime.
- Magician show: Brad Barton, 801-791-9017, brad@bradbartonspeaks.com, BradBartonSpeaks.com; Brad's research-based programs equip youth to make positive choices. Brad will use his magic tricks to demonstrate how pornography is not "the real thing" -- you have to be in charge of what you allow in your head.
- Send home the flyer, "Who Will Speak for the Children."
- Paper Bag decoration - Return the paper bags to the store. Theme: "Keeping our community clean."
- Create a puzzle out of poster board: "We each need to do our part in keeping our Community clean."
- Have a "White Ribbon School of the Year"
- "Crash & Tell" - Tailgate party - crash the car White Ribbon Run for Fun.
- Have a White Ribbon Run for Fun
- "Slam Dunk - Don't look at that junk." Basketball contest at a game.
- Work with businesses - give customers wearing white ribbons a soda or discount.
- Poster contest: "Take flight - Remember white"
- Utilize health classes to get out information from the book To Strengthen the Family by JoAnn Hamilton (full book available free from <http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/>)
- Use the video for parents: "Protecting Our Children in Today's World". (available at <http://www.envisionentertainment.com/>)
- Have a question and answer session about pornography at the cafeteria during lunch.
- Download the following from http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/white_ribbon_week.php :
 - Take the "Did You Know" sheet to every student in every homeroom class. At lunch sign a poster as a pledge to stay away from pornography.
 - Send "Prevention Plan: A Parent's Guide" home.
 - Send "20 Internet Safety Tips" home. (available at <http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/>)
 - Display posters in classrooms, or send copies home to parents. (available at <http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/>)
- Hold an informative assembly. Possible speakers: Kevin Card (home: 801-756-5711) or Bruce Bushnell (home: 801-224-6264) or at work for both of them: 801-785-8704. They are high school counselors and have an appropriate power point presentation.
- Participate in the the Stand For Decency March on President's Day. See StandForDecency.org.
- Additional Sources of Information: StrengthenTheFamily.net, UnitedFamilies.org (under Protecting Our Children), and ClipperToday.com (under Columns, A Minute for Parents, JoAnn Hamilton).

Submitted by: Citizens for Families - Coalition for Community Standards

<http://www.strengthenthefamily.net/>